

Class Nine

Friday 27th February 2015

Project

Well we think Radio 2 will be very impressed by all your 500 word entries – fingers crossed everyone!

Our 'Park Grove Palaeontology Museum' is looking a little tired so we would like to replace it and turn it into a 'Visual Laboratory of Forces'. For this we need your help!

For your next project we would like you to produce something with the theme of 'FORCES' for the display area. This project is completely open and the choice is entirely yours as long as we can display your work in some way. You could draw some diagrams showing forces in action, make a leaflet explaining forces, write a diary entry including a science lesson about forces, create a model and label the forces, create a replica of some scientific equipment – the list is endless.

We would like you to bring in your completed display piece during the week beginning the 9th March.

Spellings

Remember to complete your spelling homework.

By next Thursday (5th March) you need to write ten words including the ending –ible or –able. Can you find a rule and list some exceptions?

Extension

If you would like to you could create a labelled picture using your words. For example you might draw a breakable plate falling to the floor making an audible noise because no one was available to catch it all the time visible to the excitable cat!

Maths

Next week we will be looking at time with an emphasis on time word problems.

Other Notes

Don't forget that next Thursday is World Book Day. What costume are you going to wear? We will be doing lots of exciting book themed activities.

The school council have suggested that as part of World Book Day each class has £100 pounds to spend on books for their classroom. Can you think of any books we could buy for our classroom? We will be choosing them from the Travelling Book Fair which will be in school from Thursday 5th - Monday 10th March. Our Book Fair will be held outside the Key Stage 1 classrooms between 8:45-9:00am and 3:20-3:45pm each day.

Please remember Class 8 that you are going on a trip to the Theatre Royal on Wednesday all day. Make sure you bring appropriate clothing and footwear!
