What are we doing next week..?

English

In English we will be writing our own story using a story map. We will use a beginning, middle and end and add exciting characters and settings. Reception will start writing more labels and captions to match our class story.

As it is Harvest Festival on Thursday we will also be completing some recount writing to explain what we did. Each child now has a writing target. Please ask your child if they can remember what it is.

Maths

In maths we will be thinking about taking away. We will use these to work out real life problems using our class snack and fruit to help us. We are continuing to practise our counting in ones from any given number, both forwards and backwards. The reception children will continue doing lots of practical counting using lots of different objects. They will also explore ordering items by length and size.

Topic

In Geography we will be researching facts about dinosaurs that have been found across the world.

In Science we are going to be looking at how the days vary throughout the four seasons.

In Art we will be continuing our Matisse inspired pictures. They are coming along nicely!

In Music we are now focusing on learning songs for the Harvest Festival and can't wait to perform them for you all.
