

8th November 2018

Dear Parents/carers,

Yorkshire Schools Dance Festival – Sunday 25th November 2018

The Festival takes place at Central Hall at York University and is based on the theme 'Changes'. There will be 13 schools taking part on the day and it is a fantastic show to watch, as well as an amazing experience for the children to be part of.

Tickets can now be bought online via the Festival webpage:

<https://www.yorkshireschoolsdancefestival.co.uk>

They are priced at £7 for adults and £6 for children (children taking part in the dance do not need a ticket). You can also purchase them via www.ticketsource.co.uk. Tickets will be available at the venue on the day of the festival but may be limited. We would recommend purchasing them in advance.

On the day of the festival there is a rehearsal for 20 minutes in the morning from 8.15 am– 9.00 am. Please bring your children to CENTRAL HALL for this.

The children need to return to DERWENT HALL in the afternoon at 1.45pm for a warm up. The show itself starts at 3pm in Central Hall and is expected to finish around 5pm. We can help coordinate transport for the rehearsal and show if needed – please let us know.

For the performance the children will dance in bare feet and will need to wear black leggings and a long sleeved black top. Please let us know if there are any problems, or if you have any other questions.

Yours sincerely,
Vicky Hearson and Charlotte Platts
