

Professional Classes at Park Grove School by The York School of Dance and Drama

Our school has been established for over forty years and is a well-known Performing Arts, family orientated School. We encourage Mums and Dads to perform on a professional stage, alongside their children and encourage parents with musical and performance talent to share their gifts. We have a wonderful, outstanding success rate in preparing and placing students in further studies, colleges and universities. Some of our students have even become quite famous and taken up great careers in the business.
