A MESSAGE FROM MISS SAWYER

As the term progresses, I want to take a moment to celebrate some of the wonderful things happening in our school and remind you of the different ways you can stay connected with everyday life and events here.

We've had an exciting week on our social media! I'm delighted to share that the video of Mr. Tuxford playing the guitar and singing with Maroon and Lime Class has been a huge hit, racking up over 2,000 views this week alone! If you haven't managed to catch it yet, I highly recommend looking us up on Instagram. It truly showcases the joy and energy our children bring to music and school life.

We are committed to keeping you informed about everything that's happening in school. For a regular, visual peek into our classrooms, activities, and celebrations (including that fantastic musical performance!), please give us a follow on our School Instagram page if you're on the platform. Additionally, if you're interested in keeping up to date with the vital work, news, and fundraising efforts of our Parent-Teacher Association, please consider joining their dedicated PTA Facebook page. It's a great way to learn how you can get involved and support our school community.

We truly appreciate the support you give us, and we strive to ensure you feel as informed as possible about your child's learning journey and the vibrant life of our school.

ADHD AND DYSLEXIA AWARENESS MONTH

October is ADHD and Dyslexia Awareness Month, a time to raise understanding and support for individuals with these common neurodiverse conditions. In the UK, it's estimated that around 3 million people have ADHD, a condition that can affect focus, impulse control, and activity levels. Similarly, around 1 in 10 people are dyslexic, meaning they may face challenges with reading, writing, and spelling, despite having average or above-average intelligence. This month is an opportunity to celebrate the strengths and talents of people with ADHD and dyslexia, promote inclusive learning environments, and encourage greater awareness in our school and community. At Park Grove, we talk about differences and diversities daily and are dedicated to ensuring our learning environment is fully inclusive to support all our children.
